

WEEK 1

Weekdays until due date: 25

Beginning of week:

- ☐
- 1. Choose 1 topic from the topic list in the Assessment Hub on BABS1201 Moodle page.

Throughout week:

- ☐
- 1. Read the attached news article for your topic found on the topic list.

a) Make notes from the news article on what interests you and key ideas.

b) Research the keywords or ideas using Google to help understand concepts.

c) Note down the link to course themes for your topic.

End of week:

- ☐
- 1. Refine the topic if needed based on your Google search and understanding of keywords or ideas.

WEEK 2

Weekdays until due date: 20

Beginning of week:

- ☐
- 1. Post on your Teams lab demonstrator group - the topic of your choice and connection to course themes.

a) If the topic was refined, talk to your demonstrator during the lab and then post on teams.

Throughout week:

- ☐
- 1. Research your topic on a scientific journal article database; Google Scholar or PubMed.

2. Find and read a peer-reviewed scientific review article.

a) Make notes on chosen peer-reviewed scientific review article

End of week:

- ☐
- 1. Write down in your Research Process:

a) Identify the type of article i.e. primary or secondary research article

b) Why is this a primary or secondary article?

c) Describe the documentation process

d) Describe why you choose that article

WEEK 3

Weekdays until due date: 15

Beginning of week:

- ☐
- 1. Find and read your first peer-reviewed primary articles on a scientific journal article database.

a) Make notes on the primary article

2. Answer the Research Process questions in the Week 2 - End of Week box for your primary article.

Throughout week:

- ☐
- 1. Find and read your second peer-reviewed primary article on a scientific journal article database.

a) Make notes on the primary article

2. Answer the Research Process questions in the Week 2 - End of Week box for your primary article.

End of week:

- ☐
- 1. Read the Literature Review Assessment Rubric

2. Re-read your notes on the primary and secondary articles and fill in the structure with key ideas/dot points:

a) Title

b) Introduction

c) Subheading/Paragraph 1: Main idea 1

d) Subheading/Paragraph 2: Main Idea 2

e) Conclusion

WEEK 4

Weekdays until due date: 10

Beginning of week:

- ☐
- 1. Write an informative title for your literature review topic

2. Write an introduction that contains:

a) Background information to help your reader understand the topic

b) A clear plan for the structure of the literature review.

Throughout week:

- ☐
- 1. Write paragraph 1 for main idea 1, using the primary and/or secondary articles.

End of week:

- ☐
- 1. Write paragraph 2 for main idea 2, using the primary and/or secondary articles.

WEEK 5

Literature Review Due: 17/10/25 at 5:00 pm

Beginning of week:

- ☐
- 1. Write a conclusion that summarises the main ideas and provides future insights/directions for your topic

2. Reference Literature Review using Havard Referencing.

Throughout week:

- ☐
- 1. Finish the Research Process by ensuring you have:

a) The topic chosen stated, how refining occurred and its connection to the course

b) Identify the type of articles i.e. primary or secondary

c) Differences between primary and secondary articles

d) Describe the documentation process for your 2 primary and 1 secondary article

e) Why did you choose each article?

2. Send your Literature Review and Research Process to the Feedback hub

End of week:

- ☐
- 1. Re-Read Literature Review and Research Process

2. Submit via Turnitin before 5 pm